

“Psychology in Action: Demonstrating our Unique Contributions in a Time of Need”

OPA 2018 ANNUAL CONVENTION

November 2-3, 2018

Northeastern State University – Broken Arrow Campus

Administrative Building Ballroom, foyer and classrooms

Friday, November 2, 2018

7:00-8:30	Registration and networking continental breakfast
7:00-8:30	Student Poster and Vendor Set Up
8:00	Vendor Showcase Opens
8:30	Welcome Opening Remarks – Jon Hart, Ph.D, OPA President-Elect
8:45 – 10:30	Keynote – The Future of Psychology and the American Psychological Association , Arthur Evans, Ph.D. APA/APAPO CEO
10:30	OSBEP Board Meeting – Room A-170 –Ethics points given
10:45 – 11:45	Student Exhibits open and Vendor Showcase is open
12-1:15	Networking Lunch and presentation: PsyPACT- Advancing the interjurisdictional Practice of Psychology – Janet Orwig, MBA, CAE, Assn of State and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB)
1:30 – 2:30	Student Research Presentations hosted by Dave Kerby, Ph.D, DRAT Division Chair
2:30- 2:45	Vendor Showcase and Networking Break
2:45 – 4:00	Division Breakout One: Psychologists prescriptive privileges in practice- Hosted by RxP Division chair Thomas Marra, Ph.D., with speaker Glenn Ally, Ph.D., (Louisiana Medical Psychologist)
	Division Breakout Two: Changes to psychological and neuropsychological CPT codes – Stephen Gillaspay, Ph.D., APA Health Care Professional Advisory Committee, OUHSC
4:00	Division Breakout One: Turning Dreams into Advocacy: Organizing passion into action - Chuck Hollister, Ph.D. and Executive Director, Missouri Psychological Association
	Division Breakout Two: Growing As a Psychologist through Engagement in Community: The Positive and Ethical Impact of Nonprofit Work and Travel - Noel Jacobs, Ph.D., OUHSC
5-6	OPA Board Meeting, Legislative Report and 2019 Legislative Issues
6:30 p.m.	Division Dinners coordinated by each Division Chair. (Dutch treat, sign up at registration table complete with location for dinner)

Saturday, November 3, 2018

7:30-8:30	Registration open. Headshot opportunity available until 9 a.m.
8:00	Vendor Showcase open

8:00 – 9:00	Division Elections and continental breakfast (HSP and Diversity – Ballroom; DRAT – Room 206 and RxP, Room 219)
9 - 10:30	Keynote – “Empathy and the Machine: Technology and the future of Psychotherapy” – Zac Imel, Ph.D., author and professor, University of Utah
10:30 – 10:45	Vendor Showcase and Break
10:45 – 12:00	Division Breakout One: Acute Suicidal Affective Disturbance- Suicidality as diagnostic entity- Ray Tucker, Ph.D., faculty Louisiana State Univ. Division Breakout Two: CBT for Chronic Pain, Melissa Leedy, Ph.D., Licensed HSP, Legacy Counseling Services – Broken Arrow, OK
12-1:00 lunch	Networking Lunch - APA Council Report - Steve Scott, Ph.D., 2018 APA Council Representative, 2018 Board and Psych of the Day recognition
1:15 -2:30	Division Breakout One: Best Practices for Suicide Risk Assessment – Ray Tucker, Ph.D. Division Breakout Two: What 20,000 Children and Adolescents Taught Me: Targeted strategies for encouraging, motivating, and helping adolescents. – Chuck Hollister, Ph.D., Executive Director, Missouri Psychological Association
2:30-3:00	Vendor Showcase and refreshment break
3:00-4:00	Division Breakout One: Integrated medicine and palliative care with cannabis - Sunil Aggarwal, MD, PhD, FAAPMR (video presentation) Division Breakout Two: CBT for Insomnia- Melissa Leedy, Ph.D., Licensed HSP Legacy Counseling Services – Broken Arrow, OK
4 – 4:30	Wrap-up session - Conference evaluations and CE forms available at the close of the conference (Registration desk)
5:00	Adjournment